

Learn the Language

Ever wondered what language the people in Bosnia Herzegovina speak? Well now you can find out... And impress your friends too!

The people in Bosnia Herzegovina speak a language which used to be called Serbo-Croat and all our Novi Most workers have to learn it! here are some useful words you can learn. Just to help you out we've even written how you say it in italics. Sometimes we've given you two words - the first is Bosnian, the second is Croatian... both are used in Bosnia Herzegovina.

- Bread hljeb/ Kruh h-lyeb/ krew
- Meat Meso mess-o
- Fish Riba ree-ba
- Soup supa/ juha sue-pa/ joo-ha
- Potato krompir Krom-peer
- Tomato Paradajs/ Rajčica para-dice/ r-eye-chit-sa
- Fruit voće vo-chay
- Vegetables povrće poh-vr-chay
- Chocolate Čokolada Choko-la-da

And now, just to see if you've been paying attention, here's a quick test on some of the words we learnt last time! Label the animals. If you didn't download last month's sheet you can still get it from our website.

Don't Forget!

There is a stone in Mostar with the words 'DON'T FORGET' written on it. It reminds people not to forget the horrible things that happened in the war and never to let them happen again!

Colour in this picture to help you remember the people in Bosnia Herzegovina.
